The Bonus Decision

tem. What would the electorate of Many other considerations may

Good News From Mexico

of Mexico has declared that Article

XXVII of the Mexican Constitution shall not be applied retroactively is neouraging. This removes one of ment between the United States and Unfortunately, the text of the de-available. Some dispatches state that Article XXVII has been declared unconstitutional and others be applied retroactively. Had the retroactive application been accepted it virtually would have given the vation of the republic.

principal causes for disagree-

The news that the Supreme Court

New York then do?

may happen.

satisfactory.

The Fare Raiser

for the Interborough Rapid Transit does not say so. Company had been applied for was e comment of Governor Miller learned to her sorrow, the divorce- that night and let him in. on the bonus decision is brief and to ment of many side lines, with many Did Governor Edwards send for ing on the part of the French. It Swept from this rock-reefed fastness, The question has been determined triple fares.

What the Court of Appeals says fare. It hasn't. The public now statements? is that the constitution is the constipays approximately for every pastution. In the opinion of a large senger carried by the subway. Five number of respectable citizens Wednesday's decision may be wrong. But it stands until the court reverses til the constitution is changed by seven cents. The city's budget is anitself, which is inconceivable, or un-Dismissing as negligible the possibility of a reversal, an amendment vested. As to those now compelled of the constitution and subsequent to use two companies, ask them bonus legislation are not obtainable whether the fare is five cents.

for more than three years. The legis-Under the Gaynor and Mitchel adlatures of 1922 and 1923 must act, ministrations a traffic system was with the referendum on the amendcreated that gave practically every ment taken in the fall of 1923. Then, citizen a chance to go to and from if the result is in the affirmative, the Legislature of 1924 may provide for a bond issue, but this act must also go, it would seem, to the people for system has been dismembered. The approval before it becomes binding. The pro-bonus majority of last great body of travelers, either as cry of Brandon, "I am innocent!" November reached the impressive passengers or taxpayers, pays seven cents, while others pay 10 cents, 15 total of 800.000. Doubtless if early resubmission could be secured a and in some cases 20 cents. Who broke down the integrated system similar popular verdict would be returned. But, naturally, in three years new factors will be introduced. Suppose, for example, that Congress not necessary to mention the name. has established a national bonus sys-

The Shadow Still There

In The Tribune's judgment the have great influence on individual statement of New Jersey's Governor dements three years from now. So as to the trial, conviction and execuit is scarcely wise to commit one's tion of John Lamble, alias George H. self at this time to jam through an Brandon, will not satisfy the public amendment and a bonus to spite the conscience. It fails to satisfy our conscience. It does not remove the Doubtless politicians whose bad shadow which it is so generally felt advice led to the disregard of warn- has been cast upon justice by this ings that the bonus act would be held case. It does not answer the allegaonstitutional will continue to ex- tions of the Citizens' Union of New loft the bonus issue. But will they | Jersey as The Tribune had hoped the be listened to a second time? It is Governor would answer them.

most unlikely. The bonus question | We reprint from our editorial of cannot be up for determining action August 30 "A Shadow on Justice," for three years; in the mean time the essential part of the open letter been the worst offenders in the way them upon the number at work during Above the lakes, in spots I know, > submission of evidence, no matter how vital, unless it is presented within six months after conviction cision of the Mexican court is not yet merely say that its terms are not to your failure to act, in this particular case, have left an indelible stain upon the reputation of the State of New Mexican government full powers of In effect Governor Edwards broadconfiscation of American property acquired in good faith in the past. ly retorts that, with all of the evit such an interpretation has been dence in the case before him, includdenied, therefore, is gratifying. It ing the alleged new evidence cor- or block. The Legislature puts a off last year no serious hardship folmeets the main objection of Secre- roborative of Brandon's alibi, he was tary Hughes. "The fundamental convinced that the man was guilty of question which confronts the gov- the murder of Arthur Kupfer and the market value rule would ob- at living wages. But all such workers ment of the United States," said Edith Janney, and so he let him go viously circumvent the purpose of the Secretary on June 7, "is the safe- to his death.

guarding of property rights against For the first time, however, it is confiscation. Mexico is free to adopt brought to our knowledge that the for still more stringent restrictions. Doubtless the President's fortile brought to hear her put and blow.

In the brought to our knowledge that the for still more stringent restrictions. In the brought to our knowledge that the for still more stringent restrictions. ct to her public lands, but she is the evidence which the defendant's not free to destroy, without compen- attorney put forward at the last mosation, valid titles which have been ment in substantiation of the claim obtained by American citizens under that Brandon was in New York and Mexican laws." So far, so good. The not in New Jersey at the time of the decision of the Supreme Court, it murder. Whoever has been responwould seem, removes the danger of sible for the impression in the press this being done in cases of titles ac- and public mind that the Governor quired in the past. But does it safe- had not seen that evidence did him a grievous wrong. Justice demands President Obregon has frequently that those who champion her cause expressed his desire for the coopera- must themselves be just. sion of foreign capital. He has pro- The law of the land entitled Branof commerce and trade missions By the Governor's statement, it have not been spared in making it adequately defended.

sa a prime requisite for the sal- cate the Governor reviews the evi- tions having to do in his own par- ing money that can be better used? But Mexico's interests will best be tion the case as put forward by the $1,500 in a rather weird real estate rved by frankly facing the fact State-the moonlight identification, transaction. Again, the minutes of that foreign capital will come to the statements of Perchand, Bran- the committee following O'Malley's co only when its safety is thor- don's fellow convict and accuser, who quitting of the witness stand by adchly assured. There is every in- was fighting to save his own neck, vice of counsel have been forwarded dication that President Obregon is the photographs of Brandon's finger to the public prosecutor. ling in the right direction. prints on what was alleged to have! In refusing to accede to Senator rwly his promises are being backed been the rear door of Arthur Kup- Brown's request for O'Malley's sepa- Lakes without the aid of canals.

the Carranzistas. Has the present fuses to believe the affidavit of a let him be hanged. decision of the Supreme Court gone man named Meyer or Meyers that Oh, they call him Hanging Johnny far enough? Mexico has everything on the night of the murder Brandon So hang, boys, hang! to gain by conforming fully and com- was at work with him in a garage in pletely to the established practices of New York. Among the reasons he gives for refusing to accept it is Surely President Obregon is that there was no proof submitted enough of a statesman to realize in support of Meyer's or Meyers's that incomplete measures are un- statement, such as the pay roll of the garage with a list of its employees' names. Did the Governor take steps to satisfy himself that The announcement that a receiver this proof could not be produced? He

Brodell, who, like the man Meyer or thousands required to pay double or this woman and this man, whose fell to pieces when the German right Over the moonlit sea, The city administration beasts Brandon, and try to satisfy himself then swerved away from the capital A call has come to me. that it has maintained the five tent of the truth or falseness of their southeast toward the valley of the It bids me rise and follow

New Jersey's Chief Magictrate de-

the essence of the big conception of ness of Brandon's trial. Let him retreat to the Aisne. George R. McAneny. Since then the still in the public conscience, if it is

New Rent Law Rulings

The new rent rules laid down by three justices of the Supreme Court put together by years of intelligent in the Second Department are in the labor? Who is responsible for the main fair. On one important point, wrecking which has occurred? It is however, they clash with what has How Many Unemployed? been the general practice of the municipal courts and what has been accepted as a sound principle in a multitude of rent adjustments.

Ten per cent net return is a rea sonable margin for the owner. But the Brooklyn judges advise the muaccrues on the entire value, an owner paying 6 per cent on his mortgages would actually realize much more of rent profiteering.

On another point the di are not specific enough. The jus-Mr. Goldenhorn, who succeeded him, to ion evidence as to both fee and rental put his evidence before the courts have value or by introducing other comfactories. and tax assessment figures have been nulment of the emergency rent leg- tates and farms. the rent laws, start a new cycle of dispossessions and create a demand Davis.

Hanging Johnny

Oh, they call him Hanging Johnny! So hang, boys, hang!

So run the lines of the old sea chantey "Hanging Johnny." They are evoked by poor John Hylan's attitude in his Markets Department scandal. Since the Mayor informed his merit, rather than blindly for the Elon R. Brown, counsel in chief of party. Consequently tickets are often the legislative investigating commit-split. But it is difficult to do this missioner Edwin J. O'Malley from ing machine. One becomes nervous in claimed that everything possible don to properly defend himself. It office many things have happened, making his choice, fearing lest he may would be done to help foreign in- was the duty of the trial court to For instance, O'Malley, who only a exceed his time. vestors. He has welcomed chambers see that he was accorded that right. week since was clamoring that he one municipality after another cast was being treated unfairly, was them on the scrap heap. Now New from the United States. Words would appear that the man was in- given his day in court only to flee York City is about to put hundreds of from it when put to the test of an- thousands of dellars in voting mahear that Mexico hailed foreign cap- With that admission as a predi- swering certain embarrassing ques- chines. Is it not a big mistake, wastdence. He accepts without reserva- ticular case with the acceptance of by acts. But before that full co- fer's automobile. He believes all of ration from his official position Poor operation of foreign capital which that, just as the jury which found John demanded to know if it was intended to "hang" O'Malley first and only necessary that the past shall be Then he takes up the alleged new try him afterward. And, despite all set straight, but that there shall be evidence developed by the attorney that has transpired, O'Malley is adequate provision against a repe- who succeeded the disbarred McDer- still Markets Commissioner. Poor Out of the cluttered harbor, tition of the unfortunate mistakes of mit as Brandon's counsel. He re- John will not let him go. He will not

Von Buelow

Field Marshal von Buelow's name | On till the sun has fallen. will always be associated with Ger- Wrapped in the still of night; many's desperate effort to win the World War in a single campaignan effort which broke down in the First Battle of the Marne. He was Lulled by the lapping waters in command of the Second German The liners ride the main. Army, which engaged, with the First Again, the Governor refuses to be- and Third armies, in the great turnblighting news for thousands of New lieve the affidavit of one Dorothy ing movement through Belgium. During the greater part of this A receivership, it was foreseen, Meyers, places Brandon on this side movement he was also in command probably meant a cancellation of the of the river on the night and at the of Von Kluck's First Army, which And ye, who love to roam. lease of the Manhattan elevated hour of the murder. She swore that held the extreme German right. The lines, and with them operated sepa- she lived in the Brooklyn house envelopment had been planned years rately they seemingly have a right where Brandon and his wife had before by Count Schlieffen. It was to collect 10-cent fares. A receiver- quarters in the month of August, carried through without a hitch in Flung near a lonely shore, ship also threatens, as Brooklyn has 1918, and that she opened the door its first stages, owing to a faulty Where no man's foot has trodden. concentration and faulty maneuver- The breakers romp and roar. evidence supported that of Mrs. wing armies drew near Paris and Charged with a tang resistless, upper Seine.

clares that so far as he is concerned tion to Von Buelow and at the criti- To take the ways they take; cents comes from the passenger and the Brandon case is closed. But that cal moment of the swing away from two cents from the city's treasury, cannot be so long as the questions Paris disregarded instructions from making a total actual payment of here submitted go unanswered and the German General Staff. His too nually $10,000,000 larger because stand unrebuked or unrefuted. The right flank and rear to Manoury's out of taxation must be met the in- public mind is disquieted. It wishes attack and made the strategic positerest on the sums the city has in- with The Tribune to feel that jus- tion of the German armies exceedtice was done by Brandon, criminal ingly difficult. The Germans were and convict though he may have beaten in the First Battle of the Ye winds that ride the foam, Marne by their own blunders. You Let Governor Edwards speak out. Buelow couldn't hold his own against | And blow the liners home Let him satisfy the public mind that Franchet d'Esperey's Fifth French Meyer and Dorothy Brodell swore Army. But Von Kluck's failure to falsely. Let him dispel the impres- obey instructions had already made his business for a nickel. This was sion of growing doubt as to the fair- inevitable the German check and the Von Buelow and Von Kluck have in his power, the last and disturbing fought out their differences at length in their military memolrs. Both were retired in 1915. They had had their chance and missed it -more through Von Moltke's shortcomings than their own. But few soldiers ever had a greater chance.

Many Who Are Back at Work Included in 5,700,000 Estimate

To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: It is unfortunate that in the published reports of the statement made by Secretary of Labor Davis on nicipal courts that this 10 per cent the number of unemployed in this whole value of the property, regard- clauses were omitted. There is no less of the owner's equity in it, doubt that there is much un mploy-Heretofore 10 per cent has been al- ment at this time and that we are faclowed on the equity. If 10 per cent ing a severe winter on that account; but I think all will agree "hat there is no use in making it appear any larger than 10 per cent on his investment. testimony, took pains to say that the The Ramapo is pleasant still. For instance, Secretary Davis, in his This ruling would encourage the chief of the Bureau of Labor Statistics. The stream's the Pompton, in the main "shoestring" operators who have who furnished the figures, predicated From Singac up to Pompton, in the man the highest peak of employment in this country, January, 1920. At that time, flimsiest evidence. His original lawyer tices say: "Determine the present and child who could possibly be inhas already been disbarred for impropfair market value of the premises. fered and by the patriotic slogan "We Or have the Sunday picnic crew must produce, produce to Absconded with the foliage, too? save Europe!" was dragged into the New Jersey statute prohibiting the petent evidence." Purchase price As soon as the slump came the women and children went back into the the ordinary bases of valuation, homes which they never would have How is market value to be deter- left except under these extraordinary "Under the peculiar technicalities of mined? If the rent which it is poscircumstances, and the men went back the New Jersey statutes and under the sible to get out of new tenants, unpower vested in you as its Chief Exe- protected by the present laws, is to cut where three factories that are combe taken as a measure of market pletely shut down now were largely to stay this horrible procedure. You value, an inflated figure may be manned in 1920, when they were runreached which has little relation to ning full tilt, by workers drawn from purchase price or assessment. This, estates and farms, on which this year as an Appellate Division decision re- they are back at work, much to the cently held, would be a virtual an- gratification of the owners of said es-islation. It would allow a hold-over all over the country, and that is why This situation is typical of conditions tenant's rent to be approximated to when hundreds of thousands, if not that of newcomers in the same house millions, of factory workers were laid premium on possession, in the public lowed. Generally they went back to interest. A wrong interpretation of their pre-war work, not at inflated but were included in the 5,700,000 unemployed computation made by Secretary > provide for scientific investigation of this important part of the problem-its RALPH M. EASLEY. extent. New York, Aug. 31, 1921.

Voting Machines and Nerves To the Editor of The Tribune.

Sir: The tendency is growing to tee, that he would not remove Com- when one stands before the vot-

New Jersey tried these machines, and JOHN K. JONES. Metuchen, N. J., Aug. 31, 1921.

An Alcoholic River (From The Boston Transcript) over the Canadian border were turned To market, to market, a booth there to into the St. Lawrence perhaps the

The Conning Tower

WHEN THE LINERS LEAVE Into the stinging gale; Borne on the wings of morning, The long, lean liners sail. Out to the open ocean, Silent and swift and free; Leaving behind the harbor, The wave-washed shore and me

Under a spangled kingdom, Under a moon of white. Creening like great gray monsters.

Back where the shipping lingers Moored to each dock and quay, Daily I hear the harbor Echo the thoughts in me. "O liners, I am lonely, Forget ye not your harbor; And liners, hasten home.'

Out from some palm-fringed island'

Close in the liner's wake. Von Kluck resented his subordina- To choose the paths they travel; To dare the unknown channels: To foot unspaded sod: To venture seas uncharted; To vanquish strands untrod.

I hear the seething flood. Come, churn the restless billows NED ENGLAND.

"Well," says Uncle Abimelech Bo gardus, of Preakness, N. J., "'s about time America intervened in West Vir-

Sung by A. H. F.: 'Wa-a-ay down on the Mingo farm.'

"And why the West Virginia fues?" Said little Peterkin. "My child," said he, "it's hard to tell, But all agree they're raising a good deal of disturbance." Has anybody looked up the income

Sing praise to the Creator tax returns of the Man Around the

Of this popular creation! They have fixed the escalator At the Park Place station! The government doesn't care if we

But if we put it in the sole storage is going to be lamentable.

Summer, B. D. points out, to our continued humiliation, continues to linger in the lap of eviction.

Tell Mrs. Gracchus, if you will, fluenced by the highest wage ever of- Grow hemlocks tall on Hemlock Hill?

And Gasoline Is Still High WIDOW, respectable, white, needs washing and cleaning badly; references if required.—Newark Evening News.

THEM WAS THE DAYS Dear F. F. V .: Reverting back a cen tury or two to Chicago and my grammar school jingles, I seem not to remember any but the vulgar and unkind. I wonder why. Such as: What's your name? Puddin' and tame. Ask me again and I'll tell you the same Or this:

Green eye, pick a ple; Turn around and tell a lie. And this: Green eye, greedy gut, Eat all the world up And I was a nice little girl, really.

M. S. M. Sir: Not the least sacred of the ancient chanteys of our childhood ran: In our family there are ten

And we love to see our dear

Dear F. F. V .: We also recall a hymr of our school days:

O Lord of Love, look down from abo And pity us poor scholars. We've hired a fool

THE MURPHYS. Sir: I am put in mind of a choice bit which my cronies and I were accustemed to recite to our Democratic adversaries at the tender age of twelve, Needles and pins! Forty nice Republicans. Mice and rats! Mice and rats! Forty dirty Democrats Perhaps, however, we knew more than some of the females who cast the vote nowadays!

The debate as to what city has the greatest population leaves us entirely cover which has the most flats to let!

hire.

CONSIDERING WHAT HAS HAPPENED TO THE ORIGINAL COMPANY-

It seems odd to still find some folks around here trying to sell stock

The Legion and the "Bonus"

Sir: I well realize that much has knowledge on the subject, and there been said and written pro and con on are many places where he can obtain the subject of the incorrectly labeled such information far better than from "bonus bill" and the support which this humble effort of mine. If he cares make 200 gallons of wine this year, the American Legion and many other to study various issues of "The Legion organizations have given it, and per- Weekly" from an unbiased point of space remaining to us, our condition haps I should have rested content to let view he will doubtless learn much. the representatives of those units do | I almost feel that I owe your cor-than $10 a day?

Is there no feeling that the one man in to jump into the breach once again. fit one another, to the detriment of deserves the little he asks, simply as ican ideals. Despite A. Rene Moen's is not one-sided disarmament, but his birthright as an American? Must contention that the right to hearty chiefly the finding of some just way the uniformed man know that while his support has been forfeited, the case to reduce the causes of war and avoid shoulder sweats at the cogs of the war seems to be exactly the contrary, the rivalries or aggressions that lead machinery, his countrymen shall revel and your correspondent will prob- to it. Pacifism, as we know it to-day, in exorbitant wages, ideal working con- ably find that he stands alone among is not the remedy, and the pacifist ditions and comforts?

fer under a burden of increased taxa- the men who fought their way through statesmen. The League of Woman that millions of veterans have banded learn a great lesson. together on a graft hunt? If so, it is New York, Aug. 31, 1921.

their part where it is most needed. respondent sincere thanks that he can The letter you published this morn- at least appreciate the little we have ing from A. Rene Moen, however, can- been able to do for our disabled budnot pass unchallenged. Has your cor- dies. But at the same time I want to respondent ever taken into considera- impress upon him that we have accomtion the fact that the vast majority plished far more than working on that but the word "disarmament" attracts a of World War veterans did their work one issue. As a random example I can different sort—the radicals and peace and the actual conditions of that point to one Legion post, which on fanatics. Both men and women furnish work need no recalling-for the mag- Memorial Day and for a short time to-day some flagrant examples of the nificent sum of $1 a day, while the preceding it took over the work which kind of moral obliquity that makes no countless patriots who did war work the G. A. R. veterans had been carry- distinction, in war, between the agor loaf, as the case may be, for less schools of the locality to carry on the this is the whole story. Every civil ed spirit of Americanism to the younger person condemns war as such, but every As a Legion member I say that we generation. The same post has done rational mind knows that war is not ask no "bonus." We ask only fair much to help the work of the faltering an end in itself, but a product of other play. We ask only what we sincerely G. A. R. veterans. Another post has barbarities. In this connection "the think is right. Furthermore, why harp furnished men as deputies when a re-female of the species is more deadly on cash compensation when other cent spasm of robberies took place in than the male"; in the minds of many equally good alternatives are offered? its vicinity, and they are to-day ready pacifi , and womanliness appear to twenty who wore O. D. or Blue has Those who are at all acquainted with common sense. lost much, and that, entirely aside the Legion in their own vicinity know If a woman is to sit in the conferfrom gratitude for a job well done, he that it stands for the highest in Amerthe great American public. And w man has not the well-poised mind We do not ask that the country suf- to go even further, if he believes that necessary to a place among experienced tion to accomplish our aims, for we are Belleau Woods, the Argonne or the Voters, with its boast of non-partisansincere in our belief that they can be Hindenburg Line are unable to stand ship, is not the field in which to find reached without such stress. Does on their own feet and show their country such a mind. The organization was your correspondent believe that the that they are sincere and know what formed in good faith, no doubt, for Legion has as its primary motive the they are about, without the support of educational purposes, but the delusion passing of the additional and adjusted "the many who feel as he does," then of non-partisanship has attracted compensation bill? Does he believe it is my contention that he has yet to every undesirable element among

On the Links in 1766 To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: The following quotation may have a seasonable interest. It is from "The Expedition of Humphrey Clinker," published in 1771, the year of its' Smollett's last visit to Edinburgh was in 1766, and it is probable that his description is of that date. "In the fields called the links the citizens of Edinburgh divert themselves at a game called golf, in which they use a curious kind of bats, tipped with horn, and small elastic balls of leather, stuffed with feathers, rather less than tennis balls, but of a much harder conanother that they will fly to an inmultitude of all ranks, from the sens- That paper, in its issue of July 27, of the Allies; the other of fine sentitor of justice to the lowest tradesmen, 1921, published the article in full. mingled together in their shirts, and following the balls with the utmost unmoved. But if we could only dis- youngest of whom was turned of four- Americans having close intercourse that no woman who had any connection best part of a century, without having come any such expressions. ocean steamships could reach the Great Home again, home again. Tell it to ever felt the least alarm from sickness without having each the best part of a fact. Partisanship is not necessarily gallon of claret in his belly. Such un- narrow. Under our system any voter interrupted exercise, cooperating with can work more effectually through the keen air from the sea, must, with- party affiliations. It is a question of out all doubt, keep the appetite always on edge, and steel the constitution independent voters seems to be imagainst all the common attacks of dis- possible, or at least futile. temper." W. CLARK DURANT. Dobbs Ferry, N. Y., Aug. 31, 1921.

Courteous Ecuadorians To the Editor of The Tribune.

of July 6, 1921, a courteous editorial agent of German propaganda in war reference to the manner in which the time. The fact has been strenuously journals of Guayaquil, Ecuador, had denied, but any doubter has only to treated the news during the visit to discover a file of "The Four Lights," that port of our submarine fleet, and the official organ of the Woman's Peace sistence. These they strike with such finding it unusual that a New York Party. I investigated this publication force and dexterity from one hole to paper should interest itself and give and exposed it, through the Vigilantes. voice to kindly feelings for the people One feature was two parallel columns, credible distance. Of this diversion of one of our Latin-American neigh- headed, "What Our Friends Say" and the Scots are so fond, that when the bors, I sent a copy of The Tribune con- "What Our Enemies Say." The first weather will permit, you may see a taining the editorial to "El Telegrafo." consisted of "militaristic" utterances your expression of appreciation for paper was before we entered the war; eagerness. Among others, I was shown the great effort of those people in after that I believe it was quietly one particular set of golfers, the showing courtesy to our fleet. North stopped. It had to be. My conclusion is score. They were all gentlemen of in- with the people of Ecuador find much with the Woman's Peace Party should dependent fortunes, who had amused to admire and form affectionate friend- sit in this world-important conference, themselves with this pastime for the ships among them. Therefore we wel- and I applaud Miss Robertson's sturdy,

F. F. V. or disgust; and they never went to bed New York, Aug. 31, 1921.

Beware Women Pacifists

The Question of Admitting a Woman Delegate to the Conference To the Editor of The Tribune.

Sir: The controversy among the women on the question of admitting a woman to the disarmament conferthan one. It may be no bitterer dispute than men are wont to engage in (with more nonchalance, however), but the issue is of great importance.

correctly the difficulty of finding the right woman for the place. There are SILANU. women voters. Mrs. Feickert, of New Jersey, was unjustly censured for her discovery and announcement of that fixed principles. An organization of ence she must realize that the sim

This is made manifest by the fact that some women suggested by the league as eligible for the conference were high in the councils of the Woman's Peace Party before and during the war. It is not clearly understood Sir: Having noticed in The Tribune that this organization was a dangerous ments craftily put forth by the Ger-My object in writing is to commend mans. My own acquaintance with tha

> MARION COUTHOUY SMITE. East Orange, N. J., Aug. 30, 1921.